

NATIONAL ASIAN PACIFIC CENTER ON AGING

1511 Third Avenue
Suite 914
Seattle, Washington 98101-1626
(206) 624-1221
www.napca.org

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 20, 2015

CONTACT: Karuna Luthra, 206.838.8165

NAPCA Presents at ASA Aging in America 2015 Conference

[Seattle, WA] - The National Asian Pacific Center on Aging (NAPCA) will present at next week's American Society on Aging (ASA) Aging in America Conference, March 23-27, 2015, Chicago, Illinois.

Voices of Older Workers in an Aging Workforce

Wednesday, March 25 at 1:30 to 2:30 PM
Columbus H (East Tower, Gold Level)

Best Practices to Serve Culturally and Ethnically Diverse Older Workers

Thursday, March 26 at 9:00 to 10:00 AM
Ogden (West Tower, Silver Level, 3rd Floor)

Working with Racial and Ethnic Minority Seniors

Thursday, March 26 at 12:30 to 2:00 PM
Michigan A (East Tower, Bronze Level)

“NAPCA participates in the Aging in America conference every year, but for the first time NAPCA is sending 15 staff and partners to learn best practices and participate in important dialogue with older adults, practitioners, policy makers, researchers, and aging advocates,” said NAPCA President and CEO Christine Takada. “It’s an important opportunity to raise awareness among the aging network of the unique needs facing Asian American and Pacific Islander older adults.”

The annual ASA Aging in America conference brings together leaders from around the nation in the field of aging to build participants’ skills, knowledge, and impact in order to bring better services and practices to the aging population. For more information on the conference, click here.

ASA Conference Location: Hyatt Regency Chicago, 151 East Wacker Drive, Chicago, IL 60601

###

NAPCA is a national non-profit organization devoted to educate and to empower the Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community as the nation’s leading advocacy organization dedicated to the dignity, well-being, and quality of life of AAPI seniors.